

TOWN OF CRAFTSBURY
SELECTBOARD
NOTICE OF ORDINANCE ADOPTION

The Selectboard of the Town of Craftsbury has adopted "An ordinance relating to the use of the Town Trail over lands presently owned by Mission New England, Inc." The vote to adopt said ordinance was made on August 12, 2013 at a regular meeting of the Selectboard.

Vermont law requires public notice of this action to be published in a newspaper circulating in the municipality at least 14 days following the date an ordinance is adopted and posting of this notice in at least five conspicuous places in town.

The ordinance provides, "The Town Trail that runs from the southerly boundary of the property now owned by Mission New England, Inc. through said property to its northeastern corner, which was formerly part of Coburn Hill Road, shall be limited to use by pedestrians, horses, and non-motorized vehicles.

"This ordinance shall be enforced according to the laws of Vermont."

This ordinance shall take effect on Oct 11, 2013, 60 days after the adoption, unless a petition signed by five percent of the qualified voters of the town is submitted within 44 days of the adoption (give date of the 44th day here), requesting a vote on the question of disapproving the ordinance. Sept 23, 2013 If such a petition is received, the Selectboard will promptly warn a special town meeting for that purpose within 60 days of receipt of the petition. If the vote fails, the ordinance will take effect at the conclusion of the meeting. If the vote succeeds, the ordinance shall not take effect.

For answers to questions or provide comments about the ordinance, contact Bruce Urie, Chair of the Craftsbury Selectboard, Town Hall, P.O. Box 55, South Craftsbury Road, Craftsbury, Vermont 05828 or by calling the Town Office at 586-2823. The Town's website is <http://www.townofcraftsbury.com/>.
